A Brief Record of Local Events.

Yreka is to have a hospital in charge of Mrs. Jacob P. Wetzel, a lady who has had experience as assistant in a prominent New York State hospital. The enterprise will be backed by a stock company and the site for the building has already been selected.

This Saturday the members of Grants Pass Redmen lodge leave for Medford where it is expected about 500 pale faces from the valley towns will be in attendance. The occasion for this massive gathering of Redmen is the initiation of 125 candidates into the Medford wigwam. After these palefaces have entered to the hunting ground a swell banquet will be enjoyed and a rousing good time is promised to all who attend.

Monday evening a dancing party was given at the Guild hall in honor of Miss Helen Clark. The hall was beautifully decorated with roses and ferns and presented a most inviting appearance to the young people, to the number of about 30, who were gathered there to while away the hours with dancing and merry-making. Punch was served during the evening and a very pleasant time enjoyed by all present. Miss Clark leaves this week for Portland, where she will attend school this winter.

Meedames Sampson, Lucas and Sampson entertained 25 of their friends at Walnut Hill last Sunday at dinner and supper. In the evening a most pleasing program was rendered consisting of music, moving pictures, etc. One of the best numbers on the program was the vocal solo by W. W. Walker, which so delighted his audience that he had to give an encore. The instrumental music consisted of a Scotch bagpipe, Chinese fiddle, tum-tum and various other instruments, all combining to make music having charms to soothe the savage breast. Water formed a conspicuous part in the day's amusement but it is no wise had a dampening effect on the enjoyment of the day, and it was a happy crowd that returned to Grants Pass, feeling well pleased with this, as with other sojourns to Walnut Hill.
